Auto Cross Report:

- Canaan Event – Camping was great and the event went well. There is a high interest in having future events there.
- 10/6 Auto X – There were timing issues in the morning.
- 10/11 Auto X – 8 runs each and done by 3pm followed by a lot of fun runs.
- Loaner Helmets – The Club's loaner helmets may be out of spec by SCCNH's standards.
- Wireless Timing – More research needed before a decision is to be made.
- FM Transmitter – Mark Brook did some research into a low powered FM transmitter to announce run times and penalties so drivers do not have to wait at finish to here them.
- Gift – Erica Connolly proposes SCCNH buy a gift for James Schmill for his efforts as event photographer. Further discussion at next meeting.
- Series Awards – Paul Makes a motion that glassware be awarded to all winners and a custom Polo shirt awarded for first place. Passed unanimously.

Hillclimb Report: Submitted by Drew Young

- Ascutney went very well. Vanessa Vittum and Don Taylor put on a very good event. There were 44 entries with 4 runs on Saturday and 5 runs on Sunday. Workers were fantastic. Hill was clean by 4pm Sunday. Ceremony and appreciation for Nelson Shepard went well.
